Think of this slider as representing where people stand in our society. At the right of the slider are the people who are the best off, those who have the most money, most education, and best jobs. At the left are the people who are the worst off, those who have the least money, least education, and worst jobs or no job.

Please choose the position of the slider that best represents where you think you stand on this continuum.

I sometimes try to understand my friends better by imagining how things look from their perspective.

Becoming extremely involved in a good book or movie is somewhat rare for me.

When I see someone get hurt, I tend to remain calm.

Other people's misfortunes do not usually disturb me a great deal.

If I'm sure I'm right about something, I don't waste much time listening to other people's arguments.

After seeing a play or movie, I have felt as though I were one of the characters.

Being in a tense emotional situation scares me.

When I see someone being treated unfairly, I sometimes don't feel very much pity for them.

I am usually pretty effective in dealing with emergencies.

I am often quite touched by things that I see happen.

I believe that there are two sides to every question and try to look at them both.

Does not describe me well      A little bit describes me      Somewhat describes me      Quite a lot describes me      Describes me very well

I would describe myself as a pretty soft-hearted person.

When I watch a good movie, I can very easily put myself in the place of a leading character.

I tend to lose control during emergencies.

When I'm upset at someone, I usually try to "put myself in his shoes" for a while.

When I am reading an interesting story or novel, I imagine how I would feel if the events in the story were happening to me.

When I see someone who badly needs help in an emergency, I go to pieces.

Before criticizing somebody, I try to imagine how I would feel if I were in their place.

I prefer complex to simple problems.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I like to have the responsibility of handling a situation that requires a lot of thinking.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Thinking is not my idea of fun.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
I would rather do something that requires little thought than something that is sure to challenge my thinking	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/> abilities.

I try to anticipate and avoid situations where there is a likely chance I will have to think in depth about something.

I find satisfaction in deliberating hard and for long hours.

I only think as hard as I have to.

I prefer to think about small daily projects to long term ones.

I like tasks that require little thought once I've learned them.

The idea of relying on thought to make my way to the top appeals to me.

I really enjoy a task that involves coming up with new solutions to problems.

Learning new ways to think doesn't excite me very much.

I prefer my life to be filled with puzzles I must solve.

The notion of thinking abstractly is appealing to me.

I would prefer a task that is intellectual, difficult, and important to one that is somewhat important but does not require much thought.

I feel relief rather than satisfaction after completing a task that requires a lot of mental effort.

It's enough for me that something gets the job

Post Questions

LAST PAGE__Post Experiment Questions

PLEASE answer the following questions as thoroughly and accurately as possible. These questions are related mostly to the bandit task you have done before taking the survey.

What did you think the experiment was about? Did you have any thoughts (general impressions) about the experiment while you were doing it?

Your task was to maximize the number of points earned over the whole game. How easy was this for you?

Did you have a strategy that you used when making your decision?

A large, empty rectangular text box with a thin gray border and a small double-slash icon in the bottom right corner.

Was your strategy different for longer games than shorter games?
